

OCTOBER 2018

WEEK 1:

DANIEL 3:10-28

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are thrown into a fire
after refusing to bow to the king's statue.

SAY THIS:

Who keeps His promises?
God keeps His promises.

DO THIS:

MORNING TIME

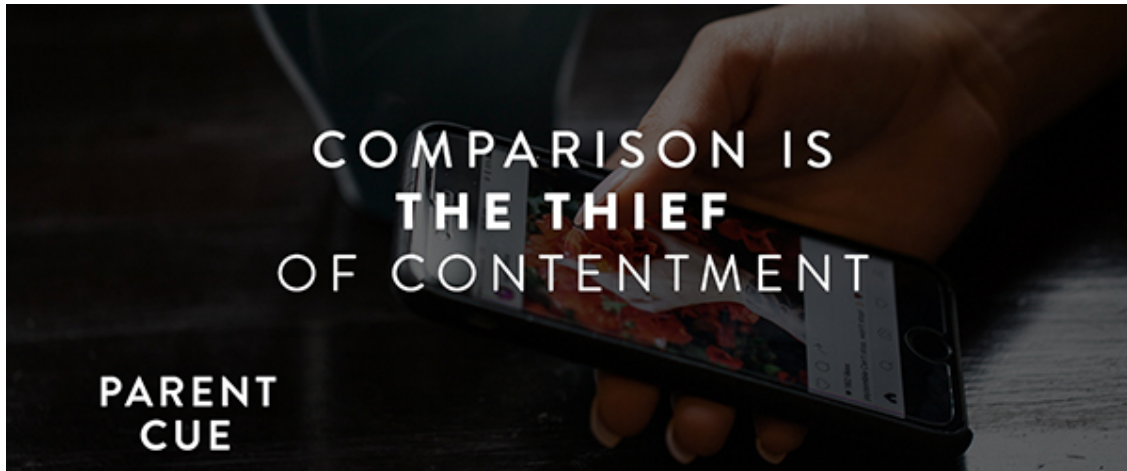

When you go into your child's room this month, say, "Good morning, sweet [boy/girl]! Time to wake up for an amazing day! I know it will be amazing, because no matter what happens, God's got it!"

REMEMBER THIS:

"God is with you wherever you go."
Joshua 1:9, NLT

BASIC TRUTH: God loves me.

From Parent Cue:

COMPARISON IS THE THIEF OF CONTENTMENT

By Liz Hansen

Before becoming a parent, I was continually tempted to compare myself to others: My writing, my run times, my interior decorating (or lack thereof), my homemade pizza. I could always find a quick shortcut to discontentment.

Now, as a parent, I face a whole new set of temptations to engage in comparison.

Child Development

MILESTONES: Those stony, immovable pillars of speech, motor skills, and pretend play. Stop eating those wood chips, kid. Don't you see the other toddlers climbing the slide on their own? I mean, you're deep-sixing a full-ride scholarship to college right now . . .
