Building the Tabernacle

SAY THIS:

---

God wants us
to work together.

DO THIS:

MORNING TIME

---

Leave a note in your child's room saying, "God wants us to work together to do more. What can we do together as a family to help each other? Think about it and let's talk at dinner!"

REMEMBER THIS:

"Two people are better than one.
They can help each other in everything they do."
Ecclesiastes 4:9, NIV

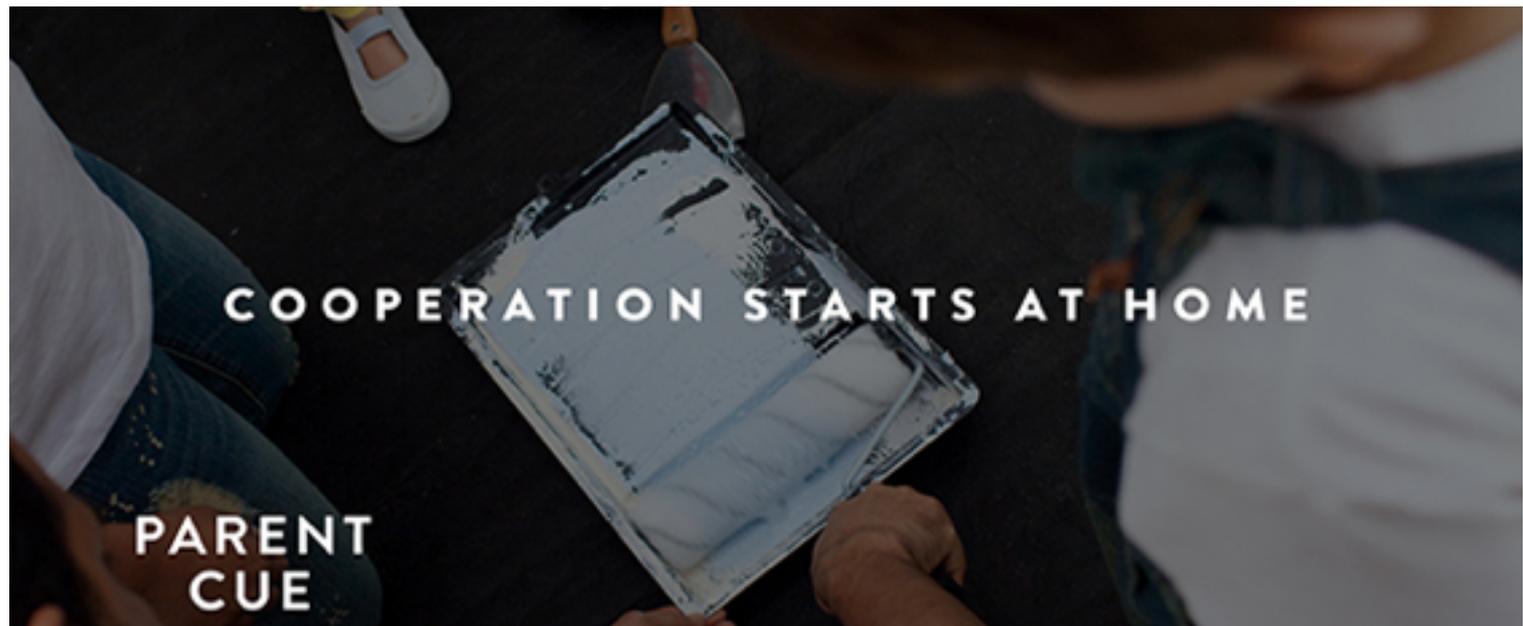

---

LIFE APP:

COOPERATION – Working together to do more than you can do alone

---

From Parent Cue:

COOPERATION STARTS AT HOME

By Dan Scott

---

How often as parents do we hear ourselves saying, “Just work together. Can’t you cooperate?” Sometimes we want to pull our hair out wondering if our kids will ever cooperate. And in those calm, introspective moments as a parent (we have those, right?), we have to ask ourselves, “Do I cooperate? Is this something I model for my kids?”

See, as much as I’m an extrovert and love being around people, I’ve never really enjoyed team projects. You know, the ones in school where inevitably ONE PERSON does the project and EVERYONE ELSE takes the credit? Yeah. The worst.

But we soon realize in life, that we can’t do it alone. We need to learn to work with people on school projects, sports teams, dance troops, in our homes, and in our careers. Why shouldn't our homes be the place where kids get their first taste of what it means to work together? . . .
